A Valley family was praying for another family in their kids’ sports community. They also had an opportunity to listen ... One of the kids from the other family wound up praying on his own.

M listened to a friend who’s concerned about her parents who are “distant from God” and then prayed for them with her.

B encountered a woman who’s having legal troubles; they just happen to have a mutual acquaintance and B prayed with her and invited her to Valley.

Heather prayed for the people who will be moving in as her new next-door neighbors ... whoever they are!

Jen prayed for Linda, a business associate who believes in salvation by works instead of by grace.

John prayed for a young man struggling with addiction
